

NB. 37

IN THE SELECTION of an ASSURANCE OFFICE for the purpose of providing CAPITAL SUMS at Death to meet FAMILY SETTLEMENTS, PARTNERSHIP or other BUSINESS ARRANGEMENTS, ESTATE DUTIES, etc., the main question, after that of Absolute Security, is which Office will provide this Fund on THE MOST MODERATE TERMS, without sacrifice of the valuable right to participate in the SURPLUS.

The System of the

is specially suited for such requirements. The PREMIUMS are so moderate that, at usual ages for assuring, £1200 or £1250 may be secured from the first for the yearly payment which would generally assure (with profits) £1000 only—the £200 or £250 being equivalent to an immediate and certain Bonus.

The WHOLE SURPLUS goes to the Policy-holders, on a system at once safe and equitable—no share being given to those by whose early death there is a loss to the Common Fund.

The SURPLUS at the Septennial Valuation (1901) is £1,580,000.

More than 60 per cent. of the Members who died during the Septennial period were entitled to Bonuses which, notwithstanding that the Premiums do not as a rule exceed the non-profit rates of other Offices, were on the average equal to an addition of about 50 per cent. to the Policies which participated.

Accumulated Funds exceed £12,000,000

W. & A. K. JOHNSTON'S NEW THREE MILES TO INCH MAP OF SCOTLAND

THIS important Map of Scotland comprises Sixteen Sheets, each Plate measuring 18 by 28. It is engraved from the latest Ordnance Survey, Checked and Corrected with the assistance of Residents in nearly every town and village in the country. In this way many important corrections and omissions have been obtained, making the complete Work thoroughly up to date in every respect, and the most perfect Map which has yet been engraved.

The Geographical features are shown in three different colours—the Black shows all the names of Places, Estates, Antiquities, and Objects of Interest to Tourists, also Outline of Roads and Railways; the Blue shows all the Rivers and Canals with their names, County Boundaries and Steamer Routes; and the Brown shows all the names of Hills and Glens, the Contours for every 500 feet, and the Heights above Sea-Level. The Roads are also filled in in this colour, making them prominent. The Counties are also distinguished by different colours, and all Water is coloured Blue. The Map will be found invaluable for the ordinary purposes of reference, and for the Cyclist and Tourist nothing better could be desired.

The Price of each Sheet, on tough paper 20 by 25 inches, and in Cloth Case is

PREFATORY NOTE.

THE PROPRIETORS of the 'EDINBURGH AND LEITH POST-OFFICE DIRECTORY' beg to express their thanks to their numerous subscribers, and to the public at large, for the liberal patronage bestowed on this publication during the long period of ninety-six years.

It has ever been the desire of the Publishers that the information contained in the annual issue of the book should keep pace with the progress and requirements of the community; and every effort has been made to render the work as accurate and complete as possible; they do not, however, hold themselves responsible for any error or omission.

In order further to enhance the usefulness of the book, the Suburban Districts around the City are revised and corrected up to date. Murrayfield is now incorporated in the General and Streets Directory. This change does not affect the Postal Delivery under Murrayfield; Letters, etc., should still bear that address, not Edinburgh.

The list of Associations, Clubs, Institutions, etc., will follow in order after the General Directory; The Boys' Brigade, after the Church Directory.

A new heading in the Professions and Trades Directory for Insurance and Assurance Companies is also formed. With these slight divergences, the arrangement of the information is the same as in former years.

A useful and complete list of Telephone Call Offices in the City and Suburbs is also given. For list of Telephone Call Offices see page 419.

The Map, from actual survey by W. & A. K. Johnston Limited, Edinburgh, is a complete, comprehensive, and descriptive plan of the City, and now comprises the new Parliamentary Boundaries.

The Proprietors desire to acknowledge, with thanks, much useful information willingly and promptly supplied by gentlemen connected with the various Institutions.

Notwithstanding the amalgamation of Portobello and other districts with Edinburgh, these places are still treated for all POSTAL PURPOSES as formerly, and are not included in the ordinary deliveries from the General Post Office.

All communications on Directory business should be addressed to the Editor as below, and they will receive careful and prompt attention.

EXPLANATION.—In the Left-hand Table are the years of the Century, and above each is the Dominical Letter corresponding with that Year. Then, opposite to the Month, at the foot of the Right-hand Table, will be found a corresponding Letter, over which are placed the Days of the Month and Week for that Month (distinguishing the Sundays by a different type). Each Blank Space in the Left-hand Table shows the Year following to be Leap Year; and as every Leap Year has two Dominical Letters, the Letter above the Blank Space must be used for January and February in every Leap Year; and for the other months, use the Letters belonging to the respective Years.

By transposing the Dominical Letters, this Calendar would answer for any Century.
